

Non-Discrimination Policy & Accessibility Services

Discrimination is Against the Law

Allergy Partners complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex. Allergy Partners does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability or sex.

Free Aids & Language Services

Allergy Partners provides free aids and language services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

We also provide free language services* to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters
- Information written in other languages

\ See the following pages of this document for the language services directory and for translated information for your local Allergy partner office.*

How to File a Complaint

If you believe that Allergy Partners has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you may file a complaint.

You may file a complaint in person, by mail, fax or email. If you need help filing a complaint, Denise Yarborough, Chief Legal Office and Chief Compliance Officer is available to help you.
